All Cleveland's public schools close for four weeks during November for the holidays. Eight plants of the American Steel and Wire Company, employing 10,600 men, have been closed for the holidays. The National Electric Illuminating Company, lighting almost all of Cleveland, besides supplying a large portion of the city with gas, is getting coal on the hour-to-hour basis.

member," said Dr. Chapin, "after an exhaustive study made some time ago of the conditions under which the children of New York live, we found them to put it mildly, appalling. The steady increase in the cost of food and particularly milk has resulted in malnutrition. The situation is one that should be promptly met by authorities."

"Our committee," the speaker said, "will send out a group of the children of Buffalo, Dec. 3.—By reason of the shortage of coal, numerous factories here, among them several that are making government munitions, may be closed. The result will be a further increase in the poverty among the poor."

E. C. McDougall, fuel administrator, has served notice that he is unable to obtain coal for private families and that the shortage of industrial plants will have to shut down in a few days unless their is immediate relief.

CHICAGO, Dec. 3.—Heavy snow and ice have caused a severe shortage of fuel situation. There is no actual shortage of coal, but the supply is limited and any interference with traffic would shut off fresh supplies. All concerns engaged in government work are assured of fuel supply. TRIBUNE SERVICE

"Bum" Rodger, alias John J. Hughes, alias John J. Kilber, the only leader of the notorious Car Barn gangsters alive and not doing time in prison, was convicted yesterday of attempted robbery before Justice Goff in the Supreme Court. He was tried four times and will be sentenced next Tuesday for a term of not less than ten years and not more than twenty.

The evidence presented by Assistant District Attorney John M. Winton, jr., showed that "Bum," with "Mickey" Herlihy, since convicted, entered a grocery store kept by Sam and Alex Gelber, in Second Avenue near Eighty-sixth Street, on the night of Jan. 17, 1935. They shot Sam through the abdomen and floored Alex with a blackjack, and then stole $220 and a ring from the cash register.

Governor Cox Ordered to Stop Seizure of Coal

Dr. Garfield Says State Must Not Interfere With Fed- eral Authority

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Fuel Administrator Garfield informed Governor Cox of Ohio to-day that he would not be permitted to interfere with distribution of coal in Ohio under the direction of the state fuel administration.

Dr. Garfield sent Governor Cox the following telegram:

"I must respectfully but firmly request that you do not interfere with the orderly distribution of coal in Ohio under orders issued by my authority as governor of this state. I am not a member of the Federal Coal Commission and I am not its administrator for Ohio. He has full authority to act, and F. C. Baird is co-operating with him. I am insisting that the state authority be not permitted to interfere with the action of the United States authority."

Fuel administration officials, declaring the action of Governor Cox of Ohio to be unwarranted and sure to disarrange the whole scheme of fuel distribution, had arranged to attend today the railroads were working in harmony with the Federal Fuel Administration representatives and would not any pressing need for coal in Ohio will be met by the campaign speakers all day long. "My experience has been that all the speakers we wanted could be obtained without pay," said Mr. Black said he believed the largest number of contributions to the Mitchell Mission fund was made by Mr. A. Monell of 43 Exchange Place. Mr. Monell credited with having given $125.00 to the fund. "Visit the city or telephone directory at that address,"

Senator Smith ascribed it to placing inexperienced men in charge of distribution, while Senator Pittman declared it due to the railroad. Senator Capper declared he believed the railroads, coal operators and sometimes the miners were, in part, responsible. Senator Smith contended the chief danger was in the coal system, men unfamiliar with the coal business.

New York-Washington Trains
[Special Correspondence]
BALTIMORE, Dec. 13.—Two of the Royal Blue trains, the finest which are operated between Washington and New York over the Baltimore & Ohio, will be used to handle the increased volume of freight under the new conditions and make room for handling a greater volume of freight traffic. The contemplated withdrawal will probably be made January 6, when a revision of the operating train schedule will be made. The exact date, however, will be made as not known.

One of the Royal Blue trains to be eliminated has been leaving Washington at 11:10 a. m., and arriving in New York at 4:10 p. m. Another has been leaving New York at 4 p. m. and arriving in Washington at 9 p. m.
